BUCKETS BASKETBALL CAMP

At Buckets Basketball Camp, emphasis will be placed on campers learning basic fundamental skills through drills, competitions, and games. All aspects of camp will be age appropriate, challenging, and fun for all skill levels. The importance of teamwork and sportsmanship will be stressed by coaches. Our goal is to provide players with a rewarding learning experience and fun practice environment.

MEET THE DIRECTOR

Liz Golden is a graduate of the Richard M. Stockton College of NJ and Wildwood Catholic High School. Liz recently completed her 18th year coaching the Margaret Mace School Varsity and Junior Varsity basketball teams. Liz has led the Falcons to eleven Island Championships, six Cape Atlantic League titles, and three crowns in each of the Scoop Taylor and George D'Amico Optimist tournaments. She has also coached the Cape May/Cumberland Counties 8th Grade All Star Team. At the North Wildwood Recreation Department, Liz is the Program Coordinator where she has been the director of Buckets Basketball Winter Clinic since 2011 and is entering her 5th year as camp director. Liz has coordinated and coached at Buckets since 2007. She believes in stressing fundamentals and teamwork to players.

DAILY CAMPER INFO

Campers are provided water, but should bring their own bagged lunch. Appropriate dress is a must; cotton/mesh shorts, t-shirts or jersey and sneakers with good support are recommended. Campers should plan to arrive at 8:45 am so that camp can begin promptly at 9:00 am. Based on growing numbers, a portion of camp may be held outdoors at Bill Henfey Park.

COACHING STAFF

Brian Haas was a captain and letter winner for Wildwood Catholic High School from 04-07 helping the Crusaders earn South Jersey Championships in 2006 and 2007. Brian is currently the Athletic Director at Wildwood Catholic. Brian has been a Buckets coach since 2004 where he is known for stressing defense and teamwork.
