NORTH WILDWOOD HISTORICAL COMMISSION POLICY
USE OF LIGHTHOUSE PROPERTY

The Hereford Inlet Lighthouse property, which is owned by the State of New Jersey and leased to the City of North Wildwood, is available for weddings in the Gazebo or in the Gardens. Prudent use of Lighthouse property allows the community to benefit more broadly from the use of this property.

The Historical Commission will permit the use of the Lighthouse property when such permission has been requested in writing and has been approved for couples wishing to get married on the property.

In the event the City Clerk deems it advisable, any application may be submitted to the Historical Commission and/or Mayor and Council for action.

The City Clerk, Historical Commission or Mayor and Council may refuse to grant the use of the Lighthouse whenever in their judgment permission should be refused. They shall not be required to give a reason for such refusal.

Smoking and alcoholic beverages are prohibited at all times on the Lighthouse property. All facility use shall comply with the state and local fire, health, safety and police regulations.

Applicants are permitted to place non-permanent decorations on the Gazebo for the wedding ceremony. All decorations must be removed within 30 minutes of the end of the wedding ceremony. It is the responsibility of the applicants to remove decorations or signage of any kind. Nails, hooks, certain adhesives or tacks of any kind are not permitted when placing decorations or signage due to the risk of damage and or staining to walls, doors, etc. Nothing shall be removed from the property by the users. User is responsible for all damage to the premises.

In the event a group is granted permission to use the Lighthouse property and fails to comply with these regulations, that group shall lose property-use privileges for:

First Violation – 6 months

Second Violation – 1 year.

Third Violation – Permanent loss of privileges.

Proper notification shall be considered verbal or written within 48 hours of scheduled ceremony. The Historical Commission will handle all disputes.

A "Use of Lighthouse Property" form must be completed and submitted to the City Clerk at least 30 days prior to the ceremony for review by the City Clerk and/or the Historical Commission.
